

The Estimated Basic price includes flights, airport transfers at the destination and b&b accommodation at 4 or 5 star hotel accommodation.

It excludes:

- X All Optional Items
- X Airport taxes (currently between £35 - £60 pp, depending on location)
- X Visa Fee. Visas in advance are essential for Egypt (cost £15); but are obtainable easily on arrival in Turkey (£10) and Morocco (no charge). We may be able to arrange Egypt visas for you at the prevailing cost plus a small service charge; please tick if required and provide passport to organisers at least 2 weeks before the trip []
- X Lunches, dinners, drinks and use of telephone etc.
- X Gratuities (allow about £5 per day)

The Basic and Optional Item prices shown here are our best estimate of the costs, but we are a non profit-making club, therefore actual costs will depend upon the number of people that book each trip or tour and can also vary due to currency fluctuations. Flight costs also vary, generally getting significantly higher the later you book (our estimated Basic Price assumes you book at least 4 months prior to departure date). At the time of your booking, we will advise you of the Basic price that will apply to you, before we confirm the booking. Latest estimates of costs can be found on our website (<http://www.bellydancer.org.uk/international.html>). We intend to provide most of the Optional Items shown. Please indicate in the Yes/No column whether you are likely to book any Optional Item. This does not commit you to pay for these optional item(s) at this stage. Final prices will be advised to you approximately 3 weeks before departure; when you may book any items that you wish.

Optional Items prices generally include private air-conditioned transport, a dedicated English-speaking guide and all entry charges; and only apply if paid for in full before departure.

One booking form is required PER PERSON. The completed and signed Booking Form and a deposit of 50% of the Basic Price must be sent to the address shown on the back page. Cheques should be made payable to "Belly Dancing Holidays". The balance of the Basic Price is payable in full 8 weeks before departure. Failure to do so may result in booking cancellation and loss of any non-recoverable payments.

Terms and Conditions

The Organisers of this holiday ("Belly Dancing Holidays" - BDH) are Jacqueline Chapman and Ian James. BDH is a not-for-profit club which arranges educational and recreational trips on behalf of its members. It is neither a travel agent nor a flight operator. It is not ATOL licensed, nor a member of IATA or ABTA, nor is it acting as an agent of an ATOL holder. As a club, it uses its knowledge, experience and group purchasing power to negotiate the best prices available from appropriately licensed and ATOL-protected travel or flight agents. It then handles the administration, on behalf of its members, to purchase the flights, accommodation and related services. Monies paid to us for flights or facilities are paid directly to the relevant agent or operator. The prices shown on the front page comprise the estimated costs of flights, transfers, accommodation, trips, etc. plus a handling margin of between 15% and 30% (depending on the group size) to cover the actual costs of the organisers. We cannot guarantee that we will accompany the members taking this holiday; but it is our intention to do so. A local travel company will be appointed and will be responsible for all matters at the holiday location, including escorting of members on trips.

The organisers cannot be held responsible for any loss or injury of whatever nature sustained in connection with the holiday and Travel Insurance is essential. When taking out your insurance, you are advised to inform the insurance company if you intend taking part in the dance workshops. Should the FCO advise tourists not to travel to this region prior to the holiday, it may be cancelled at the organisers' sole discretion; and we cannot guarantee you will receive a full refund under these circumstances - check your policy carefully.

If there are insufficient bookings, we reserve the right to alter prices or cancel the holiday. If the holiday is cancelled for this reason, you may not be able to reclaim your travel insurance premium or claim upon the policy. Reimbursement (excluding any non-refundable actual incurred costs) will be made should the holiday be cancelled by the organisers other than for reasons of FCO advice or similar. The organisers reserve the right to make changes to the content of this holiday if necessitated by circumstances beyond their control; and such changes shall not constitute grounds for cancellation.

Cancellations and Refunds

Actual costs incurred may be non-refundable, even if the holiday is cancelled by the organisers; therefore you should take travel insurance out as soon as you pay your deposit. Cancellations must be made in writing to the address below. On receipt, you will be advised of the non-refundable costs; these are normally the actual air fares, which account for up to half the total basic price. Closer to departure time, accommodation charges may also have been paid and become non-refundable.

Health care

Health Advice for Travellers leaflets are available at most Post Offices, or by calling the Health Literature Line (0800 555777).
